THE BIG K. OF P. PARADE.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND MEN IN LINE IN CINCINNATI.

Probably the Largest Procession Ever Seen in the Queen City—The Rebellion in Pennsylvania—One Regiment Camping Out in a Park—The City Jammed.

CINCINNATI, June 13.—This the big day of the Knights of Pythias conclave. It is parade day. The very cream of the country's organizations of a semi-military order formed a part of the grand procession. Reports as to the number of knights that would participate in the parade were thoughtlessly considerably exaggerated. The number of knights in line were near 15,000. Maj. Gen. Carnahan and Grand Marshal Butterfield united in making that estimate, and they are the best qualified for making correct statements in that connection. It took nearly three hours for the procession to pass a given point.

The parade started at 4 o'clock, passed the reviewing stand in front of the custom house in the following order: Police patrol wagons. First Regiment band—twenty-five pieces. Three companies of police.

FIRST DIVISION.

Maj. Gen. Carnahan, commander-in-chief of the Uniform Rank Knights of Pythias of the world, and staff.

Indiana brigade, Brig. Gen. James R. Ross commanding.

Illinois brigade, Brig. Gen. E. L. Brand commanding.

Ohio brigade, Brig. Gen. John W. Green commanding, with the following staff: Col. Dan. J. Dalton, chief of staff; Col. T. W. Minshall, assistant inspector general; Col. F. A. Holland, assistant quartermaster general; Col. J. F. Miller, assistant surgeon general; Col. C. B. Green, adjutant general; Maj. Frank J. Wade, A. D. C., and Maj. W. R. Burnett, A. D. C.

The Pennsylvania brigade, Brig. Gen. S. S. Simmons, commanding.

Missouri brigade, Brig. Gen. Frank Parson, commanding.

Unattached regiments and divisions from Minnesota, Dakota, Montana, Iowa and Kansas.

Michigan brigade, Brig. Gen. H. F. Hastings, commanding.

Unattached regiments and divisions from Wisconsin and Ontario.

Massachusetts brigade, Brig. Gen. A. W. Cunningham, commanding.

Unattached regiments and divisions from Maine, New Hampshire, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New Jersey and New York.

Kentucky brigade, Brig. Gen. George Fewless, commanding.

Unattached regiments and divisions from Tennessee, Georgia, Florida, Arkansas, Alabama and Texas.

Nebraska brigade, Gen. W. L. Dayton, commanding.

Unattached regiments and divisions not arriving in time for special assignment.

SECOND DIVISION.

Merchants' police.

Battery B, light artillery, First regiment, O. N. G., Capt. McCarty commanding.

Grand Marshal Butterfield and staff.

Lodges from all states of numbers from 1 to 150.

Lodges from all states of numbers from 150 to 198.

Lodges from various states of numbers from 198 upwards.

Fostoria Division No. 59, Fostoria, O.

Crowsdale Division No. 59, of Sixth Indiana brigade.

Fourth regiment, Indiana brigade.

Fifth regiment, Ohio brigade.

Lafayette Division No. 1, of Lafayette, Indiana.

Star Division No. 9, of St. Louis.

Miami Division No. 45, of Toledo, thirty men and officers.

Crawfordsville Division No. 32, of Crawfordsville, Ind.

McPherson Division No. 21, of Akron, O.

meeting in that city. Indianapolis sent a like invitation, and both were referred to the proper committee.

The election of officers will take place tomorrow afternoon, commencing at 2:30 o'clock. It is generally conceded that Supreme Vice Chancellor Ward, of New Jersey, will be Howard Douglass' successor as supreme chancellor.

The Second Ohio regiment, of Cleveland, O., are nicely encamped at Burnet Woods, where over four hundred uniform knights prefer to stay than in the crowded city.

The regiment is commanded by Col. Black and his staff. Tuesday night at 6 o'clock the entire regiment was called out for dress parade, and it can be said that they presented a handsome body of men in their full regimental uniform.

This division has their own band composed of members of the order. After dress parade Col. Black ordered a battalion drill.

After drill was over the air knights repaired to Eichler's for their supper, where tables the full length of the pavilion were spread awaiting them.

THE CLAN-NA-GAEL.

How the Failure of John Walsh's Mission Has Affected It.

New York, June 14.—John Walsh, who is called the boldest and clearest headed man in the Clan-na-Gael, said Tuesday:

"I am not a dynamiter. I have never advocated the use of the explosive. I don't believe in helping Ireland in that way."

Walsh is a man of striking appearance. He is about six feet two, very erect, with iron gray hair, ruddy complexion and a piercing blue eye. He has a noticeable air of determination and firmness. To a reporter he said:

"I had been in Omaha to get work, for I am a laboring man, and, not being successful, went to Atwerp and wrote to the man in England who owed me money to come over and settle, and he did. I then went to Paris, but had not been in the city a day when the detectives were so thick around me that they almost ran over each other. McKenna I never knew before, but I met him on a train one day and we were often together, because he spoke English."

"One day a detective brought me a letter from the prefecture of police, commanding me to call on him the next day. I went and was asked my reason for being in Paris. I gave it, and when the prefect told me I could go, one of the men lurched out in English, 'You are a liar, Walsh, for you are a conspirator. You came over here to kill Balfour, and you have failed. I have been sent here to tell it to your teeth!'"

"We wrangled a while, and he asked me some questions, which I refused to answer, because he called me a liar. When I went to Havre I was followed by detectives who stayed on the steamer until she sailed."

Walsh does not say what he proposes to do now, and claims not to know where McKenna is. Walsh's return and the failure of the mission that many expected of him, has set the Clan-na-Gael all agog. Certain members of this society declare that Walsh did not go to England to kill Balfour, but they refuse to say what he went for. There are intimations that the journey was in some way connected with the liberating of Dr. Gallagher, of Green Point, now serving a life sentence. There are some who say that the failure on Walsh's part to carry out his mission, whatever it may have been, will mean the disruption of the Clan-na-Gael in this country. This is the third time in two years that such missions have failed. It is said there is treachery within the order.

HORRIBLE POISONING CASE.

A Wholesale Poisoning and a Diabolical Plot Revealed at Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, June 14.—One of the most horrible poisonings cases that this city has ever known, has been discovered and the murderers, through the vigilance of Coroner Ashbridge, was yesterday afternoon lodged in jail. John Whitting, aged thirty-eight years, his alleged wife, aged forty, his alleged daughter, Bertha, aged nine years, and his son, Willie, aged two years, lived in the rear of No. 1227 Cadwallader street.

John Whitting died on March 20; Bertha on April 25, and Willie on May 26. The doctors in attendance gave certificates of death respectively for "inflammation of the bowels," "gastric fever," and "congestion of the bowels." There was an insurance on the lives of each, ranging from $200 down to $500. The coroner accidentally hearing of the case, and having his suspicions aroused, had the bodies exhumed and a chemical analysis made of the intestines, and found arsenic in all.

The woman was sent for by the coroner and after denying all knowledge of the crime, made a full confession. She said she was born in Germany and married a man in Iowa named Tom Brown and that Brown died in prison, and in 1880 she married John Whitting in this city. Her daughter Bertha was the child of a man named Story. Whitting, she said, was sick much of the time. She procured "rough on rats" and said that her husband committed suicide.

She gave the children the poison, and then summoned a physician, but did not administer the medicine prescribed. She said she could not go out washing with a baby and resolved to get rid of Willie; that she was afraid Bertha would grow up a bad woman and she had better die, and that she was afraid if she poisoned them all at once she would be found out.

Mrs. Whitting came to this city just after the Chicago fire in 1872 and has lived in houses of assignment both here and in Chicago. She is frivolous in manner and was only brought to the consciousness of her position when confronted with the evidence of her crime.

When she had finished her confession she said her conscience was clear and that she would meet her dear children in heaven. An inquest will be held on the bodies on Friday next.

Sheridan Unchanged.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The following is the last bulletin issued by Gen. Sheridan's physicians:

"There is no change to be observed in Gen. Sheridan's condition."

Foiled With an Old Gun Barrel.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., June 14.—While a young man named Mosher in Groton, was working on an old gun barrel yesterday, when the weapon was discharged and the charge striking Mosher's sister in the neck, killing her instantly.

THE SHAH OF PERSIA

ASSERTS FRIENDLY FEELINGS FOR THE ENGLISH.

And Asks for Officers to Organize and Discipline His Army—The Disease of the Sick Emperor Again Assuming an Alarming Nature—Other Foreign News.

LONDON, June 14.—The Shah of Persia, desiring to negotiate a loan from British capitalists and being rather doubtful about getting it, seizes the opportunity to assert his friendly feelings toward the conquerors of his eastern neighbor. There is a general dislike to Persia in England, even those having a knowledge of the nation regarding her as a wily, weak and intriguing power, subservient to Russia and encroaching toward India.

English officers stationed in the latter country have a more confirmed distrust of Persia and a consciousness that any friendly attitude on her part is but the precursor of some request. Still she might be useful to England, not by offering active resistance in case of a Russian movement southward, but by withholding supplies and refusing to assist the czar's troops in crossing her territory.

The Shah has asked for the detachment of some competent English officers to organize and discipline his troops, and while they could not make heroes of the motley hordes constituting the army of the "king of kings," ill-clad, poorly fed and unpaid as they are, they might materially assist England in a political point of view. Early in the century many English officers served in the Persian army, but the practice was discontinued on account of the jealousy of some of the officials of the eastern powers.

His majesty has also naval ambitions, and it is possible that some of the ironclads England will be glad to get rid of may be soon seen on the Persian gulf under the guidance of officers seeking in a foreign service the advancement they have wearied of obtaining in their own.

The influence which England will thus obtain in Persia will be useful to her in quelling the rumors prevalent among the natives of India to the effect that the Shah and the czar have a common policy of hostility toward England, and that the former is bound to join the Russian monarch when the hour for the inevitable conflict arrives.

With English officers in acknowledged good favor at the court of Teheran it would soon become known that such reports were false and the native idea of the czar's coming omnipotence in oriental affairs would receive at least a temporary check.

In view of the steady progress made by the Russians in Asia, the English at home have called for the display of some activity in India and the cessation of the policy of their standing on their own ground and inviting attack by stupid immobility, and even this little diversion in the Shah's domain, will be hailed as a movement in the right direction.

Almost Hopeless.

LONDON, June 14.—All day Tuesday Berlin was rife with reports of the alarming condition of the emperor.

There seems to be little question that his disease is reaching its final stages when the organs affected are no longer able to perform their offices.

The doctors admit that the emperor is in an almost hopeless condition. The crown prince was summoned to the palace at midnight. Dr. Bardeleben remains at the palace.

His lease of life grows very short. It is reported that the disease has reached the gutlet and broken down the wall between it and the windpipe to the extent of permitting fluids to enter the air tubes. He is, moreover, reported to be afflicted with nausea and to be pale and emaciated and without any appetite, which is one of the bad features. He manifests the greatest patience, and does not himself apparently realize that his condition is so luminously dangerous. This is due probably to the work of the fistula being painless.

Dr. Mackenzie is said to have passed a new tube beyond the fistula, and so introduced liquid food into the stomach.

The Prince of Wales Tuesday received a telegram from Potsdam stating that the condition of Emperor Frederick is very serious. The prince, on receipt of the telegram, ordered that the usual state procession to Ascot Heath be abandoned. A constant stream of cipher dispatches are passing between Dr. Mackenzie and the prince.

Believes Ironclads a Necessity.

ROME, June 14.—The minister of marine, replying to questions in the chamber of deputies, contended that the day of great ironclads was not past. He said it was idle to assert that henceforth cruisers and torpedo boats would be exclusively used. The invention of new projectiles proved the necessity for powerful ironclads. The speed of some ships in the Italian navy had been excelled by foreign vessels, but the Italia and the Lepanto remained the swiftest warships in the world.

National Leaguers Arrested.

DUBLIN, June 14.—Several members of the National league have been arrested, as a result of a series of secret inquiries which have been instituted by the government. Some of the prisoners were arrested for declining to give evidence.

Home Rule Not Dead.

LONDON, June 14.—Mr. James Chamberlain has written to the electors of Ayr parliamentary district reminding them that Mr. Gladstone's Home Rule aspirations are not dead.

Foreign Notes.

It is stated that the Duke of Aosta paid $20,000 for the consent of the pope to his marriage to Princess Letitia Bonaparte.

It is ascertained that twenty-one Tories voted on the resolution directed against the extravagance of the admiralty office.

BALTIMORE, June 14.—The new registration of the city of Baltimore is progressing slowly. Thus far the books show a total of 51,717 names of voters.

A Massachusetts Editor Dead.

BOSTON, June 14.—George Noyes, proprietor of the Massachusetts Ploughman, died Tuesday of heart disease, at the age of fifty-nine years.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Topics of the Times Given in a Tersely and Spicy Manner.

It looks like Sherman. Commissioner Atkins will resign. Senator Chase was re-elected Tuesday. Citizens of Wahash, Ind., are dodging mad dogs.

"I am not a candidate, and shall not be one," says Foraker. Germantown, O., celebrated the opening of its public library. Yellow Springs O. council is a tie on the prohibition question.

Russell Collins was killed by a falling tree near Parkersburg, W. Va. Augustus Burdick was fatally burned in a tenement house fire in New York.

At Center Point, Ind., Charles Anderson cut loose from his trouble with a razor. Isaac Deumead's remains, on removal at Urichsville, O., were found to be petrified. Annual convention of Protestant Episcopal church of Ohio readeth its first lesson to the Sanduskyites.

Dr. Frederick Workman seasoned his beer with strychnine and died in the Youngstown, O., prison. Gen. John C. Fremont will be at the Chicago convention. He is the guest of the Nebraska delegation.

James H. Mason is on trial at Ashland, O., for making Editor Reynolds a subject for his own obituary column.

A marriage license was issued at Charlottesville, Va., Tuesday to John A. Chandler and Miss Amelle Elvies.

Some cases of smallpox are reported at Haverstraw, N. Y., and there is much alarm among the residents.

At Newark, O., the coroner's jury decided that William Gould "flew dat brick," which crushed the skull of George Roscoe.

Mrs. John Whitting, of Philadelphia, is under arrest charged with poisoning her husband, his mistress and three children.

The puddlers of the Safe Harbor Iron works at Lancaster, Pa., have been notified of a reduction in wages of thirty-five cents a ton.

Mr. McLane, United States minister to France, has left Baltimore for New York, and will sail from that city on Saturday for Havre on the steamer La Normandie.

Amos Reed and Maria Brown had an unpleasant buggy-ride at Chillicothe, O. They were horse-whipped by Reed's wife and then hauled up before the mayor and fined.

The strike of the weavers in King & Pile's woolen mill, at Laporte, Ind., has been declared off. The firm restored the old scale of wages, and all hands went to work.

Youngstown, O.: Charles Bonner and James McConley, passenger conductors on the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad, injured in a wreck at Wampum, Pa., want wampum to the extent of $50,000 to repair damages.

Much excitement has been created at Norwalk, Conn., by the discovery of a case of smallpox among the Italian laborers employed on the sewers now in course of erection. The authorities say there is no cause for alarm.

Dispatches from several points in Illinois and Iowa say that the locusts which are making their appearance in such great numbers are not molesting fruit, grain or vegetables as yet. The only damage done is the killing of young and tender trees.

The employees of the lapweld department of the Pennsylvania steel works, at Pittsburgh, have decided to accept a reduction of 8 per cent. in their wages. Four hundred men will resume work. The works have been closed several weeks, pending a settlement.

The three sons of B. Michael, of Louisville, Ky., obtained possession of their father's property, and then started to quarrel over religious questions with him, in which they lost sight of religion altogether. He sued them for support; they kidnapped and carried him to unknown climes, and the excited corporation is walking up and down their unfilial spinal columns to compel them to tell what they have done with him.

Robbed by a Bogus Officer.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., June 14.—Monday evening a person claiming to be a United States marshal, arrested Vine Clements, postmaster at Sidley, a small station near Valparaiso, for passing counterfeit money. On a search Clements handed over $33. The officer took the numbers of the bills, had Clements sign the inventory, and started on foot with his prisoner to Valparaiso. Becoming tired he sent Clements to hire a team of a farmer. While gone he skipped with Clements' roll of good money. This is the fifth time this game has been played on green postmasters in this part of Indiana by bogus United States marshals.

Indicted For the Gibson Threshing.

BELLAIRE, O., June 14.—Six of the Barnesville parties indicted by the grand jury for taking Robert Gibson, the colored man, charged with attempted rape of a little girl, and thrashing him, are Francis Joffries, the girl's father, W. H. Brown, Jonathan Ellis, Sol Morris, Asa Browner and Frank Moore. They were arraigned in court, entered pleas of not guilty, and gave bond in the sum of $200 each. The penalty for this offense is a fine of not more than $500 and imprisonment of not more than sixty days. Gibson is now working in this city.

Coal Men in Confab.

CLEVELAND, O., June 14.—The Western Coal Dealers' association is in session here, and it is reported that a drop of $1, if no more, per ton will be agreed upon as the summer rate. There are rumors of a serious disaffection among the members constituting the combine at the action taken during the past winter by the coal barons of Pennsylvania in needlessly forcing up prices and compelling the western dealers to unjustly bear the brunt and public reprobation which this conduct called forth.

Millions of Bandanas.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 14.—Since the St. Louis nominations the Clyde print works here have received orders for 2,000,000 bandana handkerchiefs and have put on 300 extra hands, who, with this large force are working night and day to turn them out. All other goods have been dropped. The handkerchiefs will bear some distinguished mark to show that they are of American manufacture and not the English article now pouring into the country.

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.

THURSDAY EVEN'G, JUNE 14, 1888.

Infamous Work.

The infamous assault upon President Cleveland's private life, made in the circular which was distributed at St. Louis last week, has been run down, and the parties who originated it are known. The circular basely charged that the President was guilty of treating his wife cruelly, and had made her life miserable.

Few, if any papers, gave any credence to the infamous story and refused to publish such a slander. The fact that it was circulated at the National convention of his party was evidence enough that it was gotten up for political effect. The further fact that it was originated, not by Democrats, but by an employee of the leading Republican paper of the country—the New York Tribune—shows how low a great journal can be brought by bitter partisan animosity. More than that, it shows how greatly this leading Republican journal dreads Cleveland's candidacy. It was a base and ignoble attempt to lower the President in the estimation of the people, but it was a signal failure in this respect.

In reference to the matter the New York Times said last week:

The Boston Journal, in an editorial commendable for its spirit, very properly denounces the vulgar pamphlet abusing the President, which has been circulated among the members of the St. Louis convention. But it is mistaken when it says "that no one can accuse any Republican of having any part in the miserable affair." The person who wrote the pamphlet, and who is now in St. Louis distributing it, is William J. Barry, a reporter of the New York Tribune. The conductors of that journal have known of the dirty business in which Barry is engaged for some time past, and one of the heads of its counting room, just before he went to St. Louis, gave him money for his expenses on the trip. This information may surprise the Boston Journal, but it will surprise no one who knows the devious courses of the Tribune, and the dire necessity of preventing the re-nomination of President Cleveland which its conductors have felt.

Taxation of Banks.

In a recent decision the Court of Appeals says:

The National banks located in this State stand with reference to taxation upon precisely the same footing with the State banks, and cannot, therefore, be taxed to a greater extent than the State banks. Therefore, as the State banks are not liable to county or city taxation, the State tax upon each one hundred dollars of their capital stock being in lieu of all other taxation, the National banks are also exempt from county or city taxation.

On this subject, the validity of the Hewitt revenue bill, allowing banks to pay 75 cents tax to the State in lieu of all other city and county taxes, was affirmed by the Court of Appeals a few days ago. The court holds that the city and county are not separate, but integral parts of the State, which in its sovereign power had the right to contract with the banks; that the city and county had no power to levy a tax, excepting by authority granted by the Legislature and which it denied them must be held valid, and for sufficient public services.

The Republicans of Nicholas County will organize a club next Saturday.

The Republicans are very apt to nominate Blaine and Foraker, or Blaine and Harrison at Chicago next week.

The Republican Senate is playing a nice little trick, but the people are on to the game. The confirmation of Mr. Fuller to be Chief Justice is still hanging fire, and the Republicans are doing their best to stave it off till next December, in hopes that the election in November will result in a victory for their party.

From the way subscriptions are being voted, it looks like a railroad company can get most anything it asks for in Kentucky. The spirit manifested towards these enterprises is a most liberal one, as it should be. Nothing will develop the great resources of our glorious Commonwealth sooner than railroads.

From most every section of the State comes news of the organization of Republican clubs. That party is undoubtedly organizing for a well-planned and determined struggle in the approaching elections, and the sooner the Democrats realize this the better, provided they profit by their knowledge. The Democrats should get ready to poll the full strength of the party at the August election.

Says an exchange: "The people are paying $1.27 for bonds that John Sherman sold at a discount when Secretary of the Treasury. This policy is necessitated because the Republicans in Congress refused to consider the Morrison bills of the last two Congresses, which would have reduced taxation, stopped the flow of money from the pockets of the people into the Treasury vaults, and enabled the people to pay their debt at par instead of bestowing upon the bondholders a premium of 27 per cent. Think of that, you laboring men."

THE MATRON.

Since I was wed the harvest tide
Of love I've found does not abide
Beyond the set of honeymoon.
Which fickle is and wanes so soon
That fleeting is one's reign as bride;

Thenceforth there comes no moon to guide
Benighted love, who wanders wide;
I've found Don Cupid a poltroon
Since I was wed.

The world's devotion wounds my pride,
A bleeding heart I'm forced to hide
Beneath a mask and play buffoon.
I've sought in vain for that sweet boon
Which hymen ever has denied
Since I was wed.

—J. V. Pritchard in Home Journal.

Transient Effects of Lynch Law.

I do not believe that lynch law has the salutary effect that a judicial hanging exercises on the criminally inclined. The guilty wretch who is hustled into eternity by the former process is rarely given time to realize the awful fate in store for him, and not until the noose is around his neck does the awful horror of hopelessness dawn upon the hardened criminal. The murderer executed legally has ample time to gain a complete realization of the fact that on a certain day he will be deliberately taken out to the gallows and hanged by the neck until he is dead. In the majority of cases it is talked about, printed in the newspapers, and carries with it a warning to the hardened that has ample time to engrave itself upon the mind and act as an everlasting reminder of the commandment, "Thou shalt not kill."

In the case of a lynching, morbid interest is awakened for a brief period, but quickly dies out, leaving scarcely a trace behind. Let any one make the comparison and he will be satisfied with the truth of this proposition. If he would endeavor to recollect who had been lynched during the past would find it difficult to recollect details. But could he recollect the particulars of many year he could call to mind very few cases and hangings occurring during the period named.—Globe Democrat.

A Card to Paragaphers.

Gentlemen, candidly and honestly now, did you ever really and actually know of a—
Man who threw a bootjack at a cat?
Woman who hit her husband with a rolling pin?
Dog that bit the seat out of the bean's trousers?
Ice man who was rich?
Boy who was allowed in the parlor to ask disagreeable questions of callers?
Wife who took away husband's latch key?
Husband who fainted when he heard his wife's mother was coming?
Man who was shot for playing cornet or accordion?
And if so, where do these people live?—Drake's Magazine.

The Successful Literary Life.

The ambition to "be literary" is an unworthy one. The aim should be to render by the pen some definite and substantial benefit to the "audience." Perhaps none of us can consistently live up to this ideal, but here, as well as in greater matters, the principle of the Master may apply, "Whoever will save his life, shall lose it; but whoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it." A successful literary life is a life of unselfish service; and, as with all other unselfish service, the recognition that is not demanded as recompense is graciously tendered as a benediction. I close with a postulate: Nothing should be published, the suppression of which would be a loss chiefly to the author.—Harlan H. Ballard in The Writer.

Evaded the Authorities.

New York, June 14.—Alice Woodhall, whose extradition threatened to lead to international complications, has sailed for Europe. Application was made to the district attorney's office for a warrant for her arrest by parties who have civil suits against her. Her counsel were on the alert, however, and placed their client on an outward bound steamer early in the morning. The name of the vessel could not be learned.

An Editor Assaulted.

ZANESVILLE, O., June 14.—Frank P. Gardner, city editor of the Times-Recorder, was struck and knocked senseless Tuesday afternoon by Dr. James Holden, son of the late mayor. The paper contained an article describing a chicken fight, and the names of Dr. Holden and his brother appeared among those who participated. Gardner is seriously injured.

She Got Twelve Cents.

NEW YORK, June 14.—Miss Minnie Terry, who sued Mrs. Mary Perine for libel, on account of certain letters written by the latter, reflecting on the plaintiff, has been awarded by the jury six cents on each of the two counts in the case. This leaves the costs for Miss Terry to pay. She sued for $10,000 damages.

Big Bertha's Trial.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 14.—The preliminary trial of Bertha M. Stanley, better known as "Big Bertha," who, with her alleged son Willie, was charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, was concluded yesterday. The two were held in $4,000 each for trial.

A Brooklyn Blaze.

BROOKLYN, June 14.—The three three-story frame buildings, Nos. 17, 19 and 21 Myrtle avenue, with their contents were burned this morning. The total loss is $45,000; insurance about $35,000.

Eleven Years a Wanderer.

SHELBYVILLE, Ill., June 14.—In 1877 Martin H. Phipps, a well-to-do farmer of Gallatin county, Kentucky, almost insane because of a wayward daughter, left his home and family, determined to be a wanderer the remainder of his life. Every effort to ascertain his whereabouts was unsuccessful. A few days ago his son, still living on the old farm with his mother, saw in a daily paper that M. H. Phipps, of Shelbyville, Ind., had been allowed a pension as a Mexican veteran. He arrived here yesterday and found his long-lost father an inmate of the poor-house. Phipps is now seventy-seven years of age.

A Negro Lynched.

Religious News.

The Pope's expenses last year were $1,400,000, his income from Peter's Pence was $1,425,000.

The centennial of Alexander Campbell's birth will be celebrated at Bethany College, June 21.

Bishop Gilmore has ordered that no priest shall officiate at any funeral where flowers are displayed.

The fifty-first session of the General Association of Baptists in Kentucky will be held at Eminence, June 20.

The meeting at Midway Baptist Church closed with forty-three additions—twenty-four by baptism and nineteen by letter.

According to last year's count, church membership in this nation is as follows: Congregationalists, 436,370; Presbyterians, (North and South), 847,165; Lutherans, 981,616; Baptists, 2,917,315; Methodists, (North and South), 3,144,466.

Methodists are pleased with the plan of the General Conference to make the order of programme of service uniform the country over. The order adopted is: Singing, all standing; prayer, minister and all kneeling; lesson from both Old and New Testaments; hymn, standing; preaching; prayer, all kneeling; collection; benediction.—Exchange.

An Old Citizen Gone.

David Aldrich, an old resident of this county, died a short time since at the Hamilton County Infirmary, near Cincinnati, of which institution he had been an inmate for some years. He was upwards of ninety years old, and had been a remarkable man in some respects. He was known by almost everyone in the county, and familiarly called "Uncle Davy." He was a life-long Democrat and held office under James Buchanan, being postmaster at Washington for some years. He had no children of his own, but adopted and raised several orphans, sending them to school and doing a good part by them. He and his wife were converted under the preaching of the celebrated evangelist George O. Barnes.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

WASHINGTON.

In your article in Tuesday's paper you got the name of the White woman, who figured in the Fisk-Stokes tragedy, wrong. It should have been Mildred instead of Minnie. Mildred White went to school here, where she was well known. The school was taught by Rev. Robert McMurdy, who it will be remembered cut some figure at the time Burleigh made his celebrated speech in New York. Miss White was a very handsome, accomplished girl, and is well remembered by the writer.

Public Sale.

The undersigned, as executors of Henry Branel, deceased, will offer at public sale on

TUESDAY, July 10,

1888, that fine tract of land containing

228 1/2 ACRES

situated one mile south of Washington, Mason County, Ky., on the Mayville and Lexington Turnpike. The Farm will be offered as a whole and also in two tracts, one containing 113 1/2 acres and the other 115 acres, and will be sold in these separate tracts if it should bring more than that way.

The improvements consist of a Dwelling House of ten rooms, one Tenant House, two good Tobacco Barns sufficient to house fifteen acres, and good Bank Barn and Stable and other outbuildings. Fencing is good and the land is in a fine state of cultivation, and has never-failing springs and running water; has good Orchard, and is in as good neighborhood as can be found anywhere. Convenient to schools and churches.

TERMS—Bonds for the purchase money bearing 6 per cent. interest from March 1st, 1888, required on day of sale, 1/4 payable March 1, 1889, one-third March 1, 1890 and one-third March 1, 1891. Good security required. Lien will also be retained on land for the unpaid purchase money. Deed executed March 1, 1890, when full possession will be given. Possession for seedling given next fall. Sale will take place on premises at ten o'clock a. m.

THE water tank recently constructed at Springville for the Maysville and Big Sandy railroad is a monster one. It is sixteen feet high and twenty-four feet in diameter. The capacity is 51,800 gallons. A similar tank has been constructed on the line a short distance east of Concord, and also one at Springdale.

AN ART RECEPTION.

A Splendid Display of the Work of the Pupils of Hayswood Female Seminary.

The parlors at Hayswood Female Seminary never appeared handsomer than on last evening. It was an art reception evening at that popular institution and the rooms, brilliantly-lighted, were thronged with the citizens of Maysville and vicinity, from 7 to 10 o'clock. Chinese lanterns were suspended from the branches of the trees on the spacious sloping lawn, and while the older heads were admiring the display within the little folks were enjoying the evening by a romp on the grass. The crowd was one of the largest ever in attendance at the Seminary, and the scene was a brilliant and attractive one.

The walls of the parlors were hung with the work of the pupils in the art department the past year. The large and very elegant display were charming specimens of the industry and study of the class the past session, and evidenced the zeal and careful training bestowed on the pupils by the teacher in charge, Miss Foster. The display was tastefully arranged, and the flattering compliments heard on every hand were very gratifying, alike to teacher, pupils and the friends of the school. Strangers from Cincinnati expressed surprise at the talent displayed, and the interest manifested by the public.

Some sixty pieces were exhibited. Among those which attracted attention were:

A fine crayon portrait of William Sparks, done by his sister, Miss Estelle Sparks.

An object study from still life, and a lovely landscape in water colors, by Miss Julia Cox.

Miss Sue Bierbower exhibited several fine pieces—"The Fisher Girl," a bunch of roses, a landscape and an object study from still life, all in water colors.

A crayon portrait of J. Foster Barbour, done by his sister-in-law, Miss Sue A. was complimented very highly. Miss Hays also contributed a fine marine scene in oil, and "Childhood," in crayon.

Miss Belle Barkley had an object study from still life, a Venetian scene and the figure of a deer, all in water colors.

Miss Ethelene Wall evinced much talent in a figure of a boy, executed in water colors.

Miss Ethel Johnson exhibited several fine heads, done in crayon.

A crayon portrait of Mrs. Thomas Downing was one of the best pieces contributed by her daughter, Miss Cornelia Downing.

Miss Downing also had some fine specimens of oil painting.

Miss Mamie Hocker, a marine scene in water colors.

Miss Anna Shackelford contributed a lovely picture of roses, a landscape scene and a bunch of morning-glories, all in oils, the latter done on glass.

Miss Alice Gill, a fine marine scene in oils.

Miss Rosa Hill had several splendid specimens, a winter scene in oils attracting the most favorable notice.

The display was highly creditable to all concerned.

Miss Foster, the Art teacher, has taken lessons in wood-carving the past season from Miss Sue Bierbower, and exhibited a cabinet and screen, the latter decorated with roses, which elicited the highest praise. Miss Foster is a graduate of Syracuse College, New York. She has had charge of the art department at Hayswood the past session, and the display last evening told how well she has discharged her duty. She deserves in the highest sense the many compliments heard among the audience.

District Conference at Germantown.

The annual conference of the Maysville District M. E. Church, South, was held at Germantown yesterday and the day before. Rev. J. H. Harris was elected chairman, no Bishop being present.

The reports from the various churches in the district were favorable and showed them to be in good condition both as to finances and membership.

Rev. D. A. Beardsley was appointed to preach at 11 a. m. yesterday, and the church was packed to hear him.

Messrs. T. M. Dora, of Germantown, W. H. Current, of Millersburg, George Dudley, of Flemingsburg, and James F. Robinson, of this city, were elected lay delegates to the annual session of the Kentucky Conference, to be held at Nicholasville.

Stealing Tobacco Plants.

A dispatch from Springdale says Chas. Moore, John K. Weaver and Thad Hughes were arrested this morning between three and five o'clock by Constables Holliday and Tolle, of Orangeburg precinct, on the charge of stealing tobacco plants last Sunday night. They will be brought to this city for trial.

About 30,000 plants were stolen. The accused reside in that neighborhood.

MR. GEORGE W. BRYANT, a former resident of Maysville, but who has been on the detective force of Kansas City, Mo., for the past fourteen years, is in town among his many friends for a few days.

LIFE insurance is especially valuable for professional men whose family's income is cut off at their death. Dr. Agnew, who recently died in N. Y., left for his family a policy for $25,000 in the Equitable. Jos. F. Brodrick, Agent.

REV. THOMAS BENNETT MCINTYRE, aged forty, dropped dead at his home in Flemingsburg last Tuesday. He was ordained minister of the M. E. Church, but having through some accident, lost his voice some years ago has not been engaged in pulpit work.

J. B. THOMAS, the Philadelphia drummer who lost his pocket-book containing $50 a few days ago, mention of which was made by the BULLETIN, has recovered his money. It was found in a Kentucky Central coach, and was restored to him by the agents of that road.

THE bills for the relief of William M. Dayton and Franklin White, introduced in Congress by Hon. George M. Thomas, have passed the House of Representatives. Mr. Dayton was Second Lieutenant in Com. I, 18th Ky. Vol., and Mr. White a member of Com. K., 40th Reg. Ky. Mounted Infantry Volunteers.

FRANKFORT will vote the 27th of this month on a proposition to subscribe $100,000 to the Kentucky Midland Railroad. The Argus says the subscription is sure to carry. The same company asks for an additional subscription of $50,000 from Paris and the people of Bourbon County and will most likely get it.

A. O. REYNOLDS, Department Commander, has organized the O. M. Lewis Post No. 95, G. A. R., at Carlisle. The following are the officers: Commander—James Fisher. Senior Vice Commander—J. W. Campbell. Junior Vice Commander—Andrew Blount. Adjutant—Thomas Clements. Quartermaster—W. H. Fritz. Officer of the Day—G. W. McDonald. Officer of the Guard—H. W. Hall.

D. N. MANLEY, of Mayslick, graduated at the Bible College, Lexington, last Tuesday. The subject of his oration was the "Limits of Investigation." The Daily Press says: "Mr. Manley was entirely unembarrassed and at ease, and delivered a rather deep and thoughtful discourse, advising in well-chosen language every man to know himself, and touching slightly on the subject of universal harmony."

ONE of the brightest graduates of the Bible College, Lexington, was refused a diploma last Tuesday on account of alleged immorality. The Leader says: "C. D. Brook was suspended from the College for not taking his hat off when the name of the twelve Apostles are mentioned or some other dastardly and heinous crime committed in a spirit (moved thereto by the devil) of blasphemy and eternal damnation. L. C. Howe was expelled for going to the theater and, in order to conceal his villainy, wearing a false mustache in the broad glare of the light at the opera house."

Personal.

Miss Ada Rice, of Maysville, is in the city.—Lexington Transcript.

Ernie White, of Danville, Ill., arrived yesterday on a visit to his father, C. H. White.

SPECIAL CUT-PRICE SALE, FOR CASH, OF

Boots and Shoes.

Owing to the extremely backward season, I find that my Summer stock of Boots and Shoes is much larger than we care to have it, and have determined to reduce it, and to accomplish this end we will offer special inducements to cash buyers for the next sixty days. The stock consists of the very best brands of seasonable goods, in Ladies', Misses' and Children's fine, medium and low-priced goods, and the best and cheapest line of Men's and Boys' wear ever offered to the trade. This is no catch-penny business, but a genuine cut-price sale. The price on every pair of Shoes in the stock will be reduced. Don't fail to embrace this rare opportunity to buy good, honest Boots and Shoes at less money than they were ever offered in the history of the Maysville Shoe trade. Respectfully,

MR. BLAINE'S CANDIDACY.

A RUMOR THAT HE HAS WRITTEN ANOTHER LETTER

In Which He Says He Will Not Accept If Unanimously Asked, and That He Recommends the Nomination of John Sherman—Blaine to Be Secretary of State.

PITTSBURGH, June 14.—The Leader publishes the following: B. A. Jones, chairman of the Republican National committee, left for Chicago last night to establish his headquarters at the Grand Pacific hotel. He was weighted down with a great secret, and absolutely refused to be interviewed prior to his departure. In his possession was a letter but just received from James G. Blaine, which is to be read upon the assembling of the National convention next Tuesday.

It states in terms that can not be misunderstood Mr. Blaine's position in regard to the presidency, and settles for good any and all the questions of his candidacy. In neither of his previous epistles from Florence and Paris did Mr. Blaine state positively that he would not accept the nomination if tendered him. In the letter which Chairman Jones has, this declaration is most emphatically made. Under no circumstances, Mr. Blaine says, will he permit the use of his name at Chicago, nor would he accept were the presidential nomination unanimously tendered him.

He further goes on to indicate that Senator John Sherman, of Ohio, is his preference, and advises the convention to place him at the head of the Republican National ticket. Continuing, Mr. Blaine gives quite a lengthy dissertation on the tariff, touches the important issues of the day, and predicts in glowing terms a glorious victory for the Republican party in November. He contrasts the campaigns of 1864 and 1888 and shows how this year all the odds are in favor of the Republicans.

It is said that Senator Sherman and Mr. Blaine have understood each other on the question of the presidency for several months, and that even before the Maine man's departure for Europe an arrangement had been entered into between the two whereby Sherman was to get Blaine's nominating support and election, and that in the case of the election of Sherman to the White House Blaine is to be his secretary of state.

Who Will Preside?

CHICAGO, June 14.—The question as to who will fill the temporary and permanent chairmanships of the Republican convention has not been definitely arranged, but it is pretty certain that Senator Warner Miller, of New York, and John M. Thurston, of Nebraska, will fill those places either as named or vice versa.

Sherman's interests are being industriously looked after by A. L. Conger, of Ohio, member of the National committee. "We shall have such a big vote at the very outset as to probably dispose of any attempts at combination." That was the way Mr. Conger summed up the situation. He continued: "While the number of votes polled for Mr. Sherman on the first ballot will not be an actual majority it will be over 800."

Mr. Reid Wrote No Such Letter.

NEW YORK, June 14.—The statement from Columbus, O., that Governor Forsaker had received a letter from Whitehall Reid advising him that Mr. Blaine will not refuse the nomination if the convention should offer it to him and asking Forsaker to accept the second place was denied by Mr. Reid's secretary, on the authority of Mr. Reid. "Mr. Reid has written no such letter to Mr. Forsaker, and it is a fabrication from beginning to end."

Still Shouting for Blaine.

NEW YORK, June 14.—The recently organized Union Republican club opened its club house Tuesday night, and adopted resolutions that the Chicago convention should nominate Blaine in spite of his withdrawal.

Refuted the Nominations.

NEW YORK, June 14.—The county Democracy met Tuesday night and ratified the St. Louis nomination. A number of prominent politicians spoke.

New York, Mahoning & Western Railroad.

NEW YORK, June 14.—Dr. Nerven Green has accepted the presidency of the New York, Mahoning & Western Railway company, and in a published letter says he believes that the company will have no difficulty in raising funds for the early completion of their line of road across the state of Ohio, eastward to the Pennsylvania line near Youngstown, and westward through Indiana as far as Ft. Wayne. It is contemplated that this road shall form part of the projected American Midland railway from New York to Chicago, on or near the 41st parallel, and on which much work has been done in various places.

Kansas Temperanceites Heard From.

TOPEKA, Kan., June 14.—At the annual convention of the State Temperance union yesterday resolutions were adopted denouncing the statement that a prohibitory law cannot be enforced, and asking that the National Republican convention adopt an anti-saloon plank. Mrs. J. Ellen Foster, of Iowa, addressed the convention, and said she was en route to Chicago and in the name of the Republican women of the country would demand that the Republicans declare against the saloons.

Invalids Elope.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 14.—Mary Letellier, of Rockport, sent to the female reformatory for murder, was transferred to the city hospital some weeks ago to undergo a surgical operation. Tuesday night she eloped from the hospital in company with Charles Smith, who is so crippled with rheumatism that he walks with a crutch and cane. Their acquaintance began in the hospital, he also being there as a patient.

County Treasurer $12,000 Short.

CORYDON, Ind., June 14.—The treasurer of this county in his annual settlement states that he has redeemed county orders to the amount of $12,000, which had never been reported as outstanding. The present treasurer is a Republican, and he succeeded a Democrat, who, wishing to make a good showing, failed to report the full amount of the county's indebtedness.

Skull Crushed With a Brick.

NEWARK, O., June 14.—A brutal affray in Franklin's addition Tuesday evening will probably result in the death of one of the participants. William Gould, aged about twenty-five years, struck a boy named George Russell on the right temple with a brick, crushing the skull. Russell is in a precarious condition. Gould was arrested.

STABBED TO DEATH.

The Result of a Saloon Row at Portland, Indiana—Another Fatally Injured.

PORTLAND, Ind., June 14.—A cold-blooded and unprovoked murder was perpetrated at Frank Louderman's saloon, on Lower Main street, Monday night. A dozen or more persons were in the saloon playing cards and pool. C. R. Williams, a carpenter; James Cole, his nephew, and a colored man named Jerry Moore got into an altercation over a game of pool, when Williams and Cole began beating Moore. Cole drew a large murderous pocket knife and began cutting Moore, who was making a desperate effort to get away from his murderous assailants, crying piteously for help.

Joe McLellan, aged twenty-five, an inoffensive roustabout, seeing the man would probably be killed, stepped up and prevailed on them to let him go, when Cole turned, and, without a word of warning, said: "I'll give it to you and plunged his knife into McLellan's left groin. The dying man, starting for the door, exclaimed, "God hold me," and fell dead.

Cole put up his knife, walked out of the rear door and disappeared. He was afterward found in a stable by Deputy Sheriff Canfield and lodged in jail.

Moore has a wound six inches in length across the abdomen and one four inches in length in the left breast. Very little hopes of his recovery are entertained. Williams was arrested early in the morning and lodged in jail, and information filed against him for assault and battery. The jail was surrounded Tuesday evening by a crowd of hundreds of curious people, but no violence was offered, and the law will be allowed to take its course.

A BLOODY FEUD.

Three New Deaths in a Tennessee Faction Fight.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., June 14.—The Jones-Green feud, in Hancock and Hawkins counties is again at white heat. It had its origin during the war and more than a score of lives have been sacrificed in the bloody estrangement.

The body of John Devault was found last Thursday, in the road in Hancock county near the Green settlement. It was claimed that Devault, who stood in with the Greens, had betrayed them. Feeling ran high, and Saturday night some of the members of the two factions met and several of the Joneses were wounded. Dr. Yee, of Moorsburg, was called on to care for the injured. The Greens warned the doctor to stay away. Sunday night, as a party of the Jones faction were escorting the doctor to visit their wounded, the Greens attacked them, and "Muley" Jones and Albert Martin, of the Jones party were killed, and one of the Greens fatally wounded.

Soldiers Scared 'Em Off.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. H., June 14.—The Santa Fe passenger train had an unusual experience a few miles from Dorsey station, Monday night. The train suddenly stopped and eight masked men boarded the platform of the baggage car. Two of the robbers crawled over the coal tender and ordered the engineer to stop the train. The engineer complied, but during the parley the fireman jumped from the cab and made his way back to the station, informing the second section of the train, on which were several detachments of United States troops going south. The section came up and the robbers, realizing the motive of the fireman, escaped to the mountains.

Jay Gould En Route to New York.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., June 14.—Jay Gould and party arrived here on a special train from Memphis. They rode up Lookout mountain on the standard gauge road, and came down on the incline. Mr. Gould is suffering from neuralgia, which takes the form of headache. He left for New York by the East Tennessee road.

The stock market opened firm and on buying of some of the leading stocks prices advanced 1/4 to 1 1/2 above last night's closing in the first half hour. Toward 11 o'clock however, there was a pressure to sell Erie, Lake Shore, St. Paul, Union Pacific and Reading caused by a rumor of the death of the emperor of Germany. The advance was entirely lost under this selling. The market has been dull since 11:30 without any feature whatever and at the present writing the lowest figures are current.

WEAK NERVES

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND is a Nerve Tonic which never fails. Containing Celery and Coca, these wonderful nerve stimulants, it speedily cures all nervous disorders.

RHEUMATISM

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND purifies the blood. It drives out the lactic acid, which causes Rheumatism, and restores the blood-making organs to a healthy condition. It is the true remedy for Rheumatism.

KIDNEY COMPLAINTS

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND quickly restores the liver and kidneys to perfect health. This curative power, combined with its nerve tonic, makes it the best remedy for all kidney complaints.

DYSPEPSIA

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND strengthens the stomach, and quiets the nerves of the digestive organs. This is why it cures even the worst cases of Dyspepsia.

CONSTIPATION

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND is not a cathartic. It is a laxative, giving easy and natural action to the bowels. Regularity surely follows its use.

Recommended by professional and business men. Send for book.
